

- (c) require a copy or extract from any document that he is entitled to inspect under paragraph (a) or any notification or certificate referred to in paragraph (b) to be given and certified by the Registrar.

(3) If a reproduction or transparency of a document, notification or certificate is produced for inspection, a person is not entitled to require the reproduction of the original of that document or certificate under paragraph (2)(a).

(4) The reference in paragraph (2)(c) to a document or certificate includes, if a reproduction or transparency of that document or certificate has been incorporated with a register kept by the Registrar, a reference to that reproduction or transparency and if such a reproduction or transparency has been incorporated, a person is not entitled under that paragraph to a copy or extract from the original of that document or certificate.

Rectification of registers

602. (1) A person may apply to the Registrar for the rectification of a register if an entry in the register—

- (a) contains any matter contrary to law;
- (b) contains any matter that, in a material particular, is false or misleading in the form or context in which the matter is included;
- (c) by reason of an omission or misdescription has not been duly completed; or
- (d) is incorrect or erroneous.

(2) Upon receipt of the application under subsection (1), in order for the Registrar to decide whether to approve or refuse the application, the Registrar may—

- (a) require the applicant to produce any document or to furnish any information as the Registrar thinks necessary in order for the Registrar to rectify the entry; or
- (b) require the applicant to give notice of that application to such other person as the Registrar may specify, being a person who appears to the Registrar to be concerned or to have an interest in the business.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Registrar may refuse any application if the error, mistake or omission does not arise in the ordinary course of the discharge of the duties of the Registrar.

(4) Any person aggrieved with the decision of the Registrar under this section may appeal to the Court.

(5) Any order made by the Court shall be lodged with the Registrar and where the Court makes an order of rectification, the Registrar shall rectify the register accordingly on receipt of the order.

(6) The Registrar may, without an application being made under subsection (1), rectify the register if, in his view, an entry—

- (a) contains any matter contrary to law;
- (b) contains any matter that, in a material particular, is false or misleading in the form or context in which the matter is included;
- (c) by reason of an omission or misdescription has not been duly completed; or
- (d) is incorrect or erroneous.

Disposal of old records

603. The Registrar may, if in his opinion it is no longer necessary or desirable to retain the old records, destroy or give to the National Archives—
